1. Public Works

Special thanks to the WC Public Works Department for all their extra efforts during this busy time of year. Between storing away the Hometown Heroes banners, keeping our streets clear from falling trees and decorating for the holidays on top of all your normal responsibilities, you really keep West Conshohocken looking fantastic.

2. Veterans

Thank you to all that attended our Veterans Day Service on 11/12 with VFW Post 1074. I was honored to attend services in Conshohocken as well. Thank you to the residents that generously gave to the Veterans donation drive. Your efforts help support our local Veterans.

A book of the first batch of West Conshohocken Hometown Heroes banners that have been on display has been gifted to our Borough by one of our council people. It will stay in Borough Hall for future generations.

3. Officer Jaxx

It is with deep sadness that the West Conshohocken Police Department regrets to announce the passing of retired K9 Officer Jaxx. On Friday, November 4, 2022, K9 Jaxx passed away peacefully at home with his handler, Officer Matthew Evangelist and his family. Jaxx was nine and half years old.

K9 Jaxx proudly served the Borough of West Conshohocken for 7 years from 2014 - 2020. Officer Evangelist and Jaxx participated in numerous canine tracks, raids and apprehensions during their time together. Jaxx retired in 2020, enjoying his remaining years with his partner Officer Evangelist and his family at home. Jaxx's retirement consisted of many belly rubs, treats and ball throwing around the yard. His family remembers the destruction of many sneakers, socks and slippers as his favorite pastime enjoyment.

God bless you, Jaxx and thank you for honorably serving and protecting the community. You will always be missed and loved. May you enjoy all the sneakers, slippers and socks that heaven has to offer and run free with your loving K9 brother, Mojo.

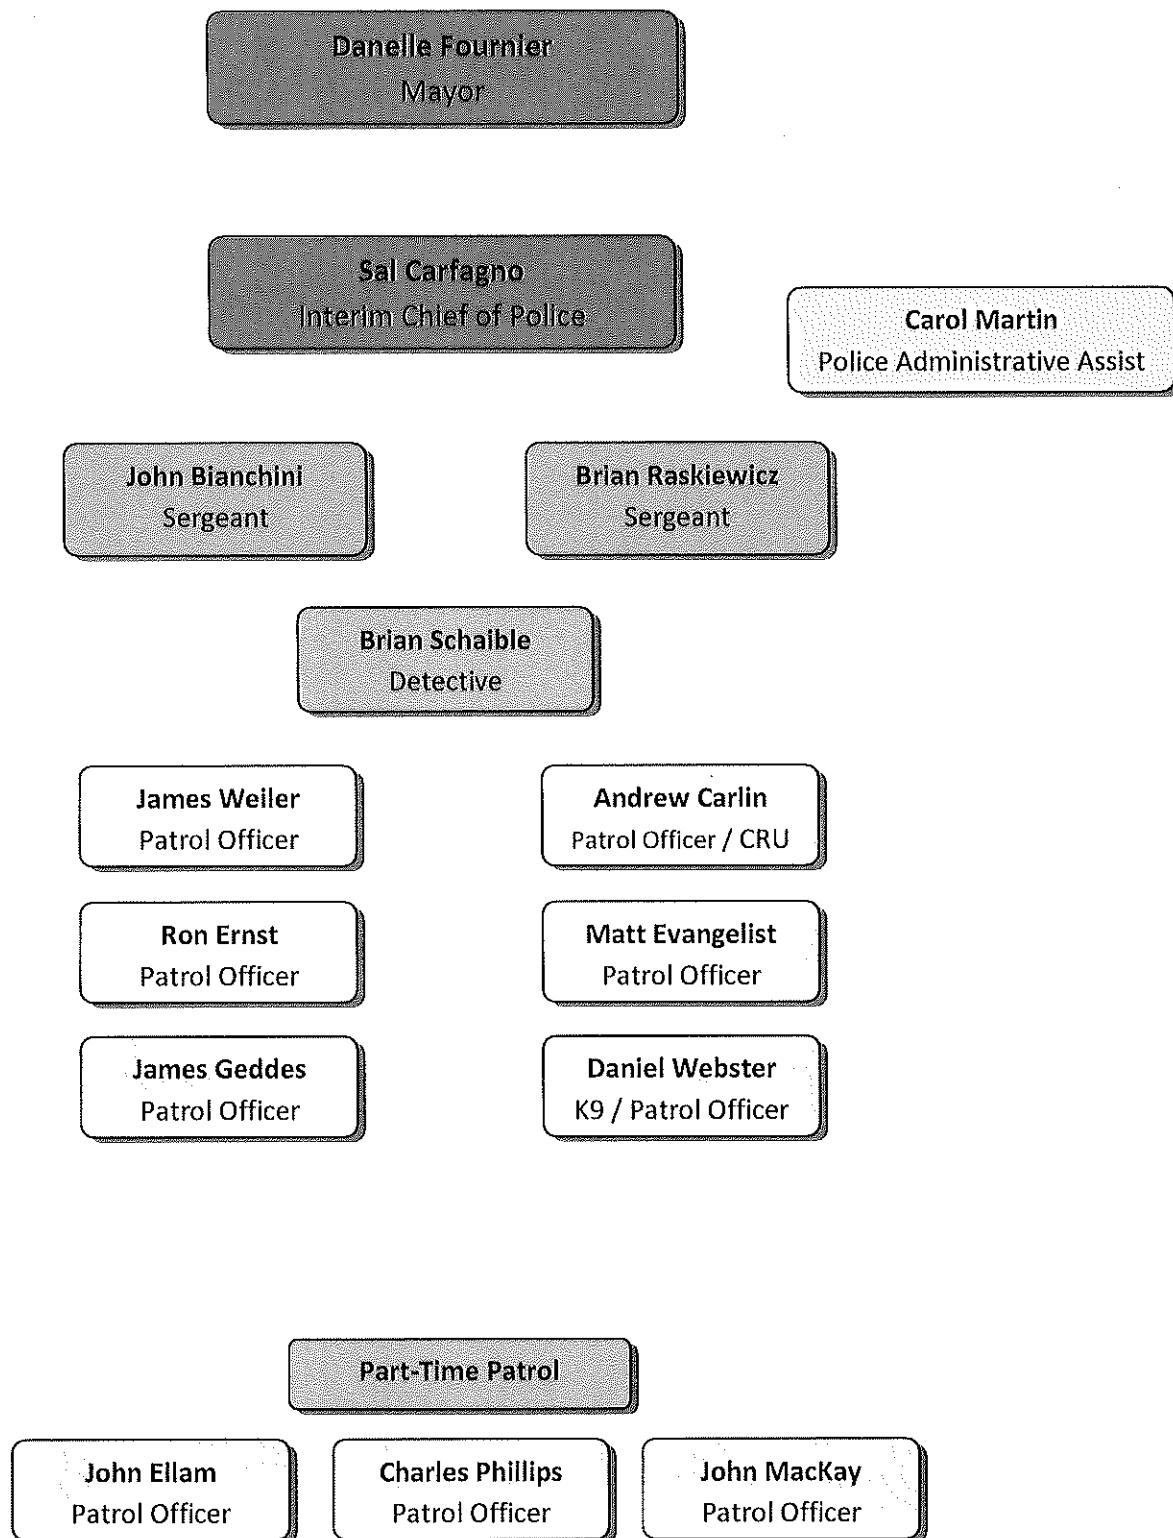

4. Tree Lighting

Thank you to all who attended and made possible the Tree Lighting Ceremony. The kids of West Conshy, young and young of heart all enjoyed a fun evening together. Thank you Gypsy for your donation of hot cocoa and sweets. Thank you Santa for handing out presents and Al Kleinschmidt for providing music.

I wish everyone a safe and joyous holiday season and look forward to 2023 in West Conshohocken.
